

“Principles of Good Data Governance”

Abstract:

Professor Laurie will reflect on the transferability and applicability to routinely collected employee data of principles of good data governance developed for the health sector through extensive multi-disciplinary collaboration.